

ASSET READERSHIP

Independent research by Marketing Pulse shows that Asset is read by nearly half of all Financial Planners/Advisers.

Source: Marketing Pulse, October - December 2008

Research also reveals Asset magazine reaches more of type A advisers than any other trade publication.

Financial Planners reached by adviser type (%)

Source: Marketing Pulse, October - December 2008

*Type A advisers come from independent dealer groups or have their own licence and their clients have an average of over $200k funds under advice.

Type B advisers are predominantly independent and their clients have an average of $100k- $200k funds under advice.

Type C advisers predominantly have tied distribution and their clients have an average of under $100k funds under advice.

Financial planning also reaches 55%