

The Sydney International Food Festival is held from October 1 to 31 each year. Top chefs, writers and food lovers from around the world join 300,000 Sydneysiders and visitors at more than 400 different events across the month. These include the hugely popular Night Noodle Markets in Hyde Park, the World Chef Showcase weekend at Star City, one-off dinners, special lunches and brunches at leading restaurants, as well as markets, tours, talks and food-based community festivals throughout Sydney and regional New South Wales.

siff.com.au

